Director

Mark Hanson is a member of the Board of Directors at Patient Airlift Services as of August 2013. Mark also serves on the PALS Pilot Committee and Safety Committee. He is a serial entrepreneur whose current company Supply Chain Alliance, Inc. has successfully served Fortune 500 technology manufacturers and their retail channels since 1998.

Mark is a commercial instrument pilot with single-engine, multi-engine and Eclipse 500 light jet ratings. He became a volunteer pilot in 2010 and since has flown over 150 missions.

When speaking of his work with Patient Airlift Services, Mark quoted Winston Churchill: “We make a living by what we get. We make a life by what we give.” He also stated: “I am grateful to Patient Airlift Services for the opportunity to make a life through giving to a broad range of deserving children, adults and families. PALS facilitates a gratifying passenger experience by leveraging the passion across the general aviation community to give.”

Mark lives in Massachusetts and is married to Liz. They have three sons, one daughter, one daughter-in-law, one grandson and two dogs. His recreational interests include supporting startup charitable organizations, pilot volunteer activities, skiing and EAA IMC Clubs.
