

Jeff Radtke

Chairman of the Board

Jeff Radtke is the Chairman of the Board of Patient Airlift Services and serves on the Executive Committee. Jeff has served on the Board of Directors since 2016. Over a twenty-five year span, Jeff worked for numerous investment banks specializing in program trading and algorithmic trading.

Jeff is a single-engine instrument rated pilot. He has been flying volunteer missions for seven years. "Some 400 years before the Wright brother's first flight, Leonardo Da Vinci best described the bug of flying for me."

"When once you have tasted flight, you will walk the earth with your eyes turned skyward, for there you have been, and there you will always long to return." Leonardo da Vinci

When speaking of his work with Patient Airlift Services, Jeff says: "It is my privilege to volunteer and be a member of the PALS team. PALS has taught me that at life's most fragile moments giving a helping hand is such a powerful healing tool."

Jeff lives in Norwalk, Connecticut with his wife Karolina and four children.
