

Peter Ryan

Director

Peter Ryan was a member of the Board of Directors of Patient Airlift Services since its inception. Peter was retired from the media business and was the former President and Chief Operating Officer of HRP Television Station Representatives. Peter also served as an officer in the US Army.

Peter had extensive experience in the areas of public outreach and fundraising for non-profit organizations. He had served on numerous boards including chairing the Airport Advisory Board for Greenwich, Connecticut. Peter had been a dedicated pilot in volunteer pilot organizations, and had flown over 200 missions as a volunteer pilot.

When speaking of his experiences as a pilot and a member of the Board of Directors of Patient Airlift Services, Peter said “ There is no more satisfying flying experience than turning your skills toward helping people and families in need. I’m proud to say that PALS not only does that but builds pilot communities in the process. I am also proud to know that PALS is the most transparent charity that I’ve ever been associated with.”

Peter lived in Greenwich, Connecticut with his wife Morna and they have one daughter and two sons. In his leisure time, in addition to PALS, Peter enjoyed music and golf.
