

William Weaver

Director

William Weaver is a member of the Board of Directors at Patient Airlift Services since 2014. He was the previous owner of Million Air White Plains, which is a fixed base operator at Westchester County Airport in White Plains New York.

He brings over forty years of expertise in the Aviation industry, and over eighteen years of experience in local government to PALS. William also volunteers his time with other boards and organizations.

When he speaks of his involvement with Patient Airlift Services, William says, “it’s all about helping people in need. I get great pleasure knowing that PALS is there when it counts.”

He lives in Armonk, New York with his wife Susan and has 3 boys. In his spare time he is an avid golfer, and volunteer.